

PROVANT THERAPY® PAIN RELIEF PROMISE

Pain Relief or the Therapy is Free

November 2018 News Update

RegenesiS Biomedical understands the challenges of caring for patients in need of pain relief. We developed Provant Therapy for treating postoperative pain and edema.

The Provant Pain Relief Promise is our pledge to provide patients with Safe, Non-Drug Pain Management. If a patient does not experience pain relief or improved quality of life during the 1st month of treatment, RegenesiS will refund the cost of therapy.

For postoperative pain relief, consider Provant Therapy. Provant is high-energy, dual-field electromagnetic therapy, proven in clinical trials to provide meaningful pain relief.
