Arizona Bioscience Company of the Year October 2, 2019

“Pain is real. If it is your pain, relief can be life changing,” stated Joan Koerber-Walker, president & CEO of AZBio. “RegenesiS Biomedical discovered an underutilized therapy and developed a unique platform that is delivering a solution to help patients manage their pain with a safe, easy to use, non-drug medical device.”

“Our Military Veterans are one group at increased risk for chronic pain,” shared Scott Brooks, President & CEO of RegenesiS. “For over 10 years we have assisted Veterans overcome debilitating chronic pain. Our focus on helping Veterans has enabled us to hire many employees who served our country in the armed services. For this group, along with our entire company, helping a fellow Veteran is especially rewarding.”
